New York Capital District Region, Cadillac LaSalle Club
Minutes of March 20th, 2019 Board/Membership meeting held at Half Moon Diner, Half Moon, NY

(Due to bad weather we had no meeting in February)

Members present: Al Patnode, Joe Roglieri, Bill Tomak, Tony Simione, Roxanne Tomak, Gus Boucher, Phyllis Stanton, Ellis Gershon, Robert Kowalczyk, Carl Ricci, Ed Allmond, Robert Fitz-James, Norm & Ellen Swanson and Tony D'Amelio from the Buick Club.

Al Patnode brought meeting to order at 7:06 p.m.

Treasurer's report: Bill Tomak reported after all deposits and withdrawals a checking balance and the CD's balance. Joe Roglieri moved to accept the treasurer's report and Gus Boucher second it.

Membership: In Ray Stanton absence Roxanne reported 42 members paid in 2018, 29 of 42 paid for 2019

Sunshine: Two long time members have passed. Flowers were sent for the Joe Kelley's funeral and a donation was made to Sacandaga Bible Camp in honor of Kenneth Canary.

Ways & Means: May 11th Buick Cadillac Lawn show. 10am- 2:30 pm. Rain or shine. Joe Roglieri will get Dash Plaques

Old Business: At the start of our meeting Megan Hennessey from the Saratoga Auto Museum joined us to clarify how Lawn shows are handled. Megan was unaware that we make a donation to the museum every year and therefore is allowing us to collect the registration proceeds from mail ins and day of show. Megan will collect credit card registrations made on their website. She said the museum is doing well. Roxanne and Megan will keep in touch as the May 11th approaches. Roxanne will send out a flyer and publish in newsletter.

New Business: A few facts on driving tour to Norwich Museum. Ray Stanton left a few instructions with Phyllis Stanton to be discussed. AUHV Club and Buick club members have been invited. Each Club is to bring their club banner or magnetic signs to help promote the club. We will leave at 9 am from Schamont High and another pick up spot n I88 Amsterdam exit. Arriving 11 is and are looking to leave around 3 pm, possibly stopping at Brooks BBQ on the way home. Ray Stanton and Fred Lyngard will take RSVP's and will send out a flyer in the near future with decided details.

Gus offered to make dash plaques for the Norwich trip and asked to put the clubs logo on the dash plaque. Joe Roglieri made a motion to give Gus permission to do so and Bill Tomak second it. There are 5 buildings to tour and our classic cars will be parked in front of the museum. The museum has reduced the tickets to the exhibit from $10 to $8.

Joe Roglieri will look into T-shirts for the club. Next meeting is April 17th at the Half Moon diner.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:15 pm
