NEW YORK CAPITAL DISTRICT REGION, CADILLAC LASALLE CLUB
Minutes of November 20TH, 2019 MEMBERSHIP MEETING AT SARATOGA AUTO MUSEUM

MEMBERS PRESENT:

Al Patnode, Bill Tomak, Roxanne Tomak, Ray Stanton, Tony Simione, Joe Hogan, Ellis Gershon, Skip Springer, Bob Kowalczyk, Ed Allmond, Gus & Laurie Boucher.

President Al Patnode brought meeting to order at 7:27 p.m.

TREASURERS REPORT:

In Bill Tomak's absence Roxanne reported the checking account balance and CD's balance. Gus Boucher made a motion to accept the report and Joe Hogan seconded.

MEMBERSHIP:

Ray Stanton reported 50 out of 52 paid for 2019 and 26 of 52 paid for 2020. Ray also reported that we are 90% compliant in the National membership.

SUNSHINE: Nothing new to report but it was reported that Jim Derby is not feeling well.

WAYS & MEANS: Nothing is scheduled, 2020 Buick Cadillac lawn show will be attentively scheduled for May 9th, must be confirmed with Auto Museum and Buick club.

Club is looking into organizing an all GM show possibly held in 2020 or 2021 at Canary's.

Must organize a committee, but first confirm with Keith Canary.

ACTIVITIES:

Nov 23rd Schenectady Holiday Parade

Dec 14th for Holiday Party, each member & spouse or significant other will be covered by club funds.

May 9th, 2020 will be Buick/Cadillac Lawn show at Saratoga Auto Museum

May 16th, 2020 Saratoga Auto Museum Spring Show, rain date: 5/17/2020

Tentative July 2020 all GM car show at Canary's

OLD BUSINESS: No nominations for officers were presented; Roxanne Tomak; secretary placed one vote for officers to be re-instated for 2020. All present agreed. President: Al Patnode, Vice President: Joe Roglieri, Treasurer: Bill Tomak, Secretary: Roxanne Tomak, Member at Large: Norman Swanson, Ways and Means and Activities not yet filled. Newsletter editor is also needed.

NEW BUSINESS: Ray Stanton and Gus Boucher found Keith Canary very receptive to having a car show at his place and a committee will have to be established to organize and consult with Keith.

Gus Boucher brought it to our attention that registrations for vehicles will now have a yes/no question asking if your vehicle has been modified. Convertibles may be considered modified, not sure how anyone should answer the question since convertible is not part of the Vin#.

It was approved by those present to give $100.00 to following charities: Schenectady City Mission, Open Door in Glens Falls, Galway Food Pantry and Joseph's House in Troy. SPCA was suggested but subject matter of meeting changed and never was approved.

Next meeting will be January 15th at the Saratoga Auto Museum which Roxanne will schedule with Megan.

Meeting adjourned at 8:34 pm

NEW YORK CAPITAL DISTRICT REGION, CADILLAC LASALLE CLUB
Minutes of January 15th, 2020 Board/Membership meeting, Saratoga Auto Museum, Saratoga.

MEMBERS PRESENT: Al Patnode, Bill Tomak, Roxanne Tomak, Ray Stanton, Tony Simione, Gus Boucher, Ellis Gershon, Skip Springer, Robert Kowalczyk, Barry Cox and Fred Lyngard.

Director, Al Patnode brought meeting to order at 7:09 p.m.

TREASURERS REPORT:

Bill Tomak, treasurer, reported after deposits and withdrawals a checking Balance and CD balance. Gus Boucher moved to accept the report and Ellis Gershon seconded. Bill also handed out the Annual Budget and Proposed budget. Al Patnode read off each budget.

Fred Lyngard moved to accept the budgets and Gus Boucher seconded.

MEMBERSHIP:

Ray Stanton reported 28 of 53 members paid for 2020, and 50 paid out of 53 for 2019.

SUNSHINE: Nothing to report

WAYS & MEANS:

2020 Buick /Cadillac lawn show was approved to be scheduled for May 9th, 2020. Cups for awards will have to be ordered. An All GM show to be held on Keith Canary's property was proposed.

ACTIVITIES:

Fred Lyngard suggested doing a drive to an attraction during the summer. Ray Stanton brought up the problem of getting people to participate, which needs to be worked on.

Ray Stanton read off a list of several car shows scheduled for 2020 and Roxanne will try to post in next newsletter.

OLD BUSINESS:

The Holiday party went well, 31 attended. Joe Hogan played a video of car shows and the Colony mall car display the club did in years gone by. Copies were passed out to those who wanted one. More copies are available.

NEW BUSINESS:

Gus Boucher made a motion to allocate $2500.00 to hold a car show on Keith Canary's property, Rt 29 in Vails Mills and have a donation made to a charity of Keith's choice from proceeds after expenses are paid. Ellis Gershon seconded the motion and all agreed. The car show should cost much less than the proposed allocation, hopefully $1000.00 or less. Gus also checked out the National Insurance for liability and the show would be covered at no cost to our club.

Details must be worked out and other meetings with Keith will be held. The small engine club will handle food. Ray Stanton will do registration. Gus will take care of the dash plaques.

The next club meeting will be February 19th at the Half Moon Diner at 7pm.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:30 pm
